

BLACK ADVISORY BUSINESS COUNCIL SCHOLARSHIP FUND

DESCRIPTION:

Established by Titonian Wallace Sr., this scholarship aids Black graduating seniors from Hillsboro High Schools in pursuing higher education or vocational/trade programs. It supports studies at non-profit community colleges, 4-year colleges/universities, and accredited vocational/trade schools. Applicants require a minimum 3.0 GPA, demonstrated financial need, and work experience. Preference is for first-generation college attendees. Scholarships can be renewed annually.

ADMINISTRATION:

Administered by the Hillsboro Community Foundation, an Oregon non-profit Charitable corporation 501(c)(3).

GOALS:

SHORT-TERM:

Raise $2,500 initially, using excess funds for 2024, 2025 scholarships, with a vision to reach $25,000 within two years for full scholarship funding.

LONG TERM:

Establish a permanent endowment to sustain the scholarship fund, aiming to raise $250,000, ensuring long-term support for ongoing scholarships and an award of two $4000 or $5000 scholarships per year.

BENEFITS:

Tax Deductions: Contributions are tax-deductible, as the scholarship is managed by the 501(c)(3) Hillsboro Community Foundation.

Financial Support: Eases the burden of tuition and educational expenses for Black students.

Empowerment: Inspires confidence and motivation in students to pursue their academic and career goals.

Community Impact: Strengthens the local community by fostering educational advancement and diversity.

Legacy Building: Creates a lasting impact and positive role models within the Hillsboro community.

Community Engagement: Shows commitment to diversity and community by supporting a scholarship for Black student success.

ONLINE DONATION OPTIONS AVAILABLE

<https://tinyurl.com/BABCfund>

TITONIAN'S PERSPECTIVE:

His initiative serves as an empowering role model for Black students, inspiring hope and ambition while contributing significantly to the community.

Send check to the HCF and put BABC Scholarship in memo

Hillsboro Community Foundation
P.O. Box 808, Hillsboro, OR 97123

HCF is an Oregon non-profit Charitable corporation 501(c)(3)